

Irwin Mitchell, Solicitors (incorporating Alexander Harris)

Irwin Mitchell is the largest personal injury practice and 4th largest law firm in the UK. This year we were recognised as Regional/National Law Firm of the Year (The Lawyer Awards 2007).

With excellent offices in Manchester city centre we are able to offer an unrivalled range of legal and financial services for clients with serious injuries and for their families, including:

- Free accident investigation services by road traffic experts.
- Case managed rehabilitation and care schemes for clients with brain or spinal injuries.
- Solutions for clients with special needs in respect of housing, transport and aids and equipment.
- Access to physio and occupational therapy services.
- Access to neuropsychological therapy services.
- Support through return to work programmes
- Disability Rights advice to obtain support from statutory services.
- Benefits advice
- Financial advice ,information and support.
- Powers of Attorney to enable families to help with practical money management.
- Special Needs Trusts.
- Expert financial analysis to optimise case settlement solutions.
- Receivership and Trust management.
- Investment management services.

Our award-winning Neurotrauma Team are recognised as leading experts in cases involving brain and spinal cord injury and for many years we have pioneered an holistic approach, supporting our clients throughout their period in hospital and during their rehabilitation. We work closely with healthcare professionals involved in rehabilitation and with external case managers to find solutions for clients when they return home and are looking for ongoing support.

We are the only law firm to have twice been awarded the Client Care Award (by the Lawyer magazine) - on both occasions the awards were for our holistic approach in helping clients with brain injuries.

We believe that we can offer far more than just a compensation service, bringing together our range of expertise to help disabled clients and their families.

Read what the Legal Directories say about us:

Legal 500 (2006-7).

'The Firm enjoys an enviable reputation as being 'very difficult to defend against'.

'Irwin Mitchell has a strong track record on high value, complex cases'.

'It attracts unanimous praise from clients appreciative of its high quality service and acumen across a raft of high value cases'.

Chambers (2006/7).

'The people at Irwin Mitchell are well organised and knowledgeable in a way that no other firm is'.

'The team wins accolades for 'going the extra mile for their clients'.

'The firm ticks all the boxes' and 'has expertise in every aspect of PI work'.

Also, read what our clients say:

'We as a family can't find the right words to thank you for everything you have done and all the effort you have made. Luke has his new home planned and without you none of this would be happening. We are so grateful for what you have achieved for Luke and it is such a relief to know his future is secure'. (Kevin, father of Irwin Mitchell personal injury client.)